THE CHALLENGE WE FACE

Global economic uncertainty, geopolitical shifts
Domestic political uncertainty
Asia-Pacific soft power race is intensifying
Traditional MICE formats face saturation
Tourism fatigue in major destinations

THE CHANGE WE CREATE

3S Strategy: Driving Travel, Spend & Return

A photograph of a diverse group of young adults at what appears to be a festival or outdoor concert. They are smiling, laughing, and looking towards the camera. The background shows a range of mountains under a clear sky. The lighting suggests it might be dusk or dawn.

Stay Longer

Pre/post programs, festival-linked travel

Spend More

Premium experiences, cultural extensions

See You Again

Build loyalty, emotional connection

Festival Economy

Bangkok

Bangkok Design Week (BKKDW) proposes the prominence of Bangkok's design and creative works. Through these works, the festival presents ambitious ideas and new possibilities of Bangkok, now and in the future.

Celebrated in the creative districts, these creative works range from experimental pieces to the works with social and business impacts. With fun activities and memorable experiences, the festival is blended beautifully with the charm of Bangkok and attracts visitors from across the world to experience Bangkok's latest happening.

Chiang Mai

Chiang Mai Design Week is a vibrant annual festival that brings together local creatives—designers, artisans, artists, and entrepreneurs—to present their innovative projects, enriching lives with cutting-edge ideas. This celebration of local creativity develops collaboration within Chiang Mai while also forging new business connections on a global scale.

Phuket Peranakan Festival

This festival aims to narrate stories from the past to the present, highlighting the rich heritage, ceremonies, traditions, and culture of Baba Naya.

- Festival Owner : Peranakan Association Thailand
- Date/ Venue : June, Phuket
- No. of attendee : 10,000 Pax
